Chapter 3

The family got out of the water and went to the blanket Justin and Judy had brought with them earlier. John sat beside June and Justin and Judy sat next each other. You could cut the tension and excitement in the air with a knife and finally John started to speak. He asked Judy if she had ever had any sexual thoughts about Justin and with embarrassment in her voice, she looked at her brother and said that she had many times over the last year but had never acted on them. Justin looked at her and asked her if she really did and she nodded her head yes. Justin said he had fantasized about her also and then he looked at his mom and said he thought about her too.

Judy asked her dad what had brought on this topic as they had never talked about it before. He told her he had started thinking about it after the gas station in Grants Pass because of all the questions they had been asked and then the boy asking Justin if he was having sex with her. June spoke up and said the same thoughts had started going through her head also once they were back on the road. She asked the kids if they knew that there were families back home that engaged in family sex as well as other couples that swapped partners. The kids both said they did not know it but then they thought about it and Justin asked about a couple of families and John told them he thought they did. None of the families had come out in the open but it was rumored. Judy asked her parents if they fantasized about them and June said it had only started that day but couldn't keep her mind off them, in fact she had French kissed Justin before they went swimming and was quite turned on by him.

John asked the kids if either one of them had had sex yet and they both said no. Judy said she did play with herself and she knew Justin did too as she had overheard him. Judy said she had never had anything inside her except part of her finger and when she hit her cherry it hurt so she stopped. June took her hand and asked her if she would like to become a woman and start having sex. Judy told her she would love that but was scared about the pain and she had heard girls bleed a lot the first time and it was not enjoyable. June told her yes girls did bleed and it would hurt but she only bled a small amount and the pain went away within a minute. As far as the girls saying they didn't enjoy it, they probably had a boy that didn't care or was in too big of a hurry to take it slow and make it enjoyable for them. She told John and Justin to sit and talk as she was going to take Judy back to camp and have a woman to woman talk and they were not to come back to camp until she called for them. She gave John a wink when they started to walk away. Justin and Judy missed seeing it.

When the girls had left, John asked Justin what he thought about the conversation they had just had. Justin told him he was still trying to process it but thought it was cool. He asked his dad if it was for real that he could have sex with Judy. John told him only if Judy was okay with it, he was never to force her. He said, in fact, it was okay for him to have sex with his mother as well if she wanted. This was something that really took Justin a minute to absorb. While his mind was processing it his dick had a mind of its own and he realized he was as hard, or harder, than he had ever been. He looked down and saw it and started to cover up when John laughed and told him not to worry about it and Justin looked at him and saw he had a hard on also. They both laughed and decided to go for another swim to relax until the girls called them.

Back at camp, June and Judy sat in a couple of chairs outside. Judy asked her mom if today was really happening or was she dreaming. June told her that everything was real and so was the talk they had just had with the boys. Judy asked her mom if they were really saying her and Justin could have sex if they wanted and they were okay with it. June told not only was she okay with it but hoped that Justin would have sex with her and Judy would have sex with her father. June told Judy how much of a good lover John was and how gentle he could be. She asked Judy what she knew about sex. Judy told her mostly what she learned on the street, as sex-ed at school was a joke. June apologize to her for not having the TALK with her years before but like many parents they weren't sure how to handle it and was hoping the subject never came up. But today the subject came up and in a big, different way. Judy laughed and said different was an understatement.

They sat and talked about many different aspects of sex and all the while June could not take her mind off how sexy her daughter was and wondered what her pussy tasted like. She had never been with a woman before but the thought just would not go away. Finally she asked Judy if she had ever been with any of her girl friends sexually. Judy told her no, but she knew a few of her friends did but she was always scared she would being labeled a lez if she did, since she barely dated. June asked her why she didn't consider her friends as lesbians and Judy told her she didn't know, probably because they dated boys and had sex with them. Judy asked her mom if she had ever been with a woman and June told her no but she had thought about it many times and too was scared but not about being called a lez but because she didn't know if she would like it and didn't want to disappoint her partner. Judy told her she would like to find out what it was like and asked her mom to be her first and maybe only woman. June stood up and took her hand and they went into the motor home.

Down at the water John and Justin were having a great time swimming and just being together. Their hard ons had finally gone down and they laughed about them getting hard to begin with. John asked Justin if he would like to get out of the water and go explore the property some and see what was there. They got out, put their shoes on and started walking. The property was fairly flat so it was easy to walk, except for the grass being calf tall and starting to dry out. They never really talked about anything in particular just typical causal guy small talk while they were alone. They walked for quite a while and saw that there wasn't much to the land except flat and grass. They found a couple of piles of trash that people had dumped and Justin told his dad how much stuff like this pissed him off, why couldn't people take care of the garbage correctly and not dump it on somebody's land. John told him that he agreed and if they would have been able they would have hauled it out for the property owner. Justin told him he wished they had towed the Jeep this trip as he would have liked to explore the property more. John agreed and said they did have to go back into the town about 10 miles away in about a week and they might think about going to get it, even though it is a full day drive each way. Justin said if the town had Greyhound service he would be willing to ride up to Washington on the bus and drive the Jeep back, John thought that might work and they would talk about it with the girls. Speaking of girls, he said, he wondered how their talk had gone and what they were doing. Justin joked and said they were probably eating each other's pussy, not knowing what he was saying was actually happening.

John then told Justin they should have a serious talk about what had been discussed earlier. Justin told him he was okay with that. John asked him how much he knew about sex and Justin told him mostly what he read on the internet and heard from his friends at school. John asked him how much porn he looked at and Justin told him some but not a huge amount but he did use it to masturbate with now and then. John asked him what kind of porn was he into and Justin told him that he liked to look at pictures of woman and girls along with stories about, and he hesitated. John asked him what was wrong, and Justin said he just realized he looked at pictures of girls that looked like his mom and sister mostly and the stories were almost always incest related. He said he had never really thought about it until John asked him. He said he had also gone onto a few of the free web cam sites and had watched girls there too and they were always as close to his sister or mom as he could find. John look at him and laughed because Justin was once more sporting a hard on. Justin said he had even watched a few guys that looked like his dad and was surprised when he got turned on by them as well. He looked at his dad and asked him if he was gay for that. John told him just because he watched a few guys and got turned on didn't make him gay as he was more turned on by the females so he was not gay, bi-sexual maybe. John could feel himself getting hard as they were talking about the male cam shows. Justin noticed and asked his dad if he had ever been with another guy.

John told him he had not actually been with a guy sexually but as a teen he had a few buddies that used to get together and look at some Playboy and Penthouse magazines and they all ended up jacking off. They never did each other and were always careful to hardly even touch legs or anything because they didn't want the rest of the guys to think they were trying to do anything or they were gay. He said, thinking back, it was surprising to him now that they were so scared of even touching, and even though it was in the early 90's the stigma was still there for guys to be attracted to or have casual sex with another guy. He did admit there were a couple of his friends that did sort of excite him and since they were looking at the magazines and everybody had hard ons, nobody could tell he was hard because of the guys. John looked at Justin for a reaction as he reached over and touched Justin's dick for the first time. He asked if it was okay and Justin told him it was.

John stroked his son and it only took about 30 seconds before Justin was shooting cum all over the ground. They both laughed and said it was weird for them to be standing out in the middle of a field and John had just jacked Justin off. Justin told his dad he didn't want to wait for the girls to call them he wanted to head back to camp then. John agreed, so they started back and Justin took his dad's hand and told him he loved him and thanked him for the cum. John told him he could do him whenever he wanted. They walked for a few minutes and Justin stopped walking and took his dad's dick in his hand and started jacking him off and then he got down on his knees and gave it a lick. This surprised both of them that he would do it. Justin looked up and said if he was going to have gay sex, he wanted to know what it was like to suck a guy off and sucked him into his mouth. John could only moan from the enjoyment and pleasure his son was giving him and it didn't take long before he told Justin he was going to cum. Justin looked up and with his mouth still full told him to go for it. John started cumming and Justin swallowed as fast and as much as he could but John was so excited from the conversations and the day in general that he came so much some ran out of Justin's mouth and dripped off his chin. John finished cumming and Justin stood up. John started laughing and said Justin looked like a cum whore with all the cum dripping off his chin. Justin laughed and said he was not a whore but he did enjoy sucking his dad off and liked the taste of his cum. He told him now that he had sucked him and had tasted another guys cum, it would not be the last as he liked it. John told him he was welcome to suck him off anytime he wanted and said he would suck Justin off later when they were with the girls. He said it would be a huge surprise for them and couldn't wait to taste his cum. They continued back toward camp stopping at the lake for the blanket they had left behind.

(End of chapter 3, where to go from here?)
