Chapter 5

June and Judy wanted the guys to see the dried pussy juice on their faces and legs so they didn't clean themselves up at all before they opened the door of the motor home and stepped out. They found both of the guys sleeping in a lawn chair and June looked at her daughter and said loud enough to wake the guys, "typical men, drinking beer and sleeping". This caused John to open his eyes and look at the women standing before them. He did a double take and then realized their faces, hair and legs were covered in dried cum. He reached over and shook Justin to wake him up. Justin woke up and looked at his sister first and then his mom and finally said to them that they looked like they had had fun from all the dried cum on them. Judy told him he had no idea and turned to walk away. Justin told her he was sorry if he said anything wrong and she told him he hadn't as she was just going to the lake to clean up and with a smile on her face asked him if he would like to help. Justin moved out of the chair and was at her side faster than he had ever moved before. She took his hand and they walked hand in hand down to the water.

John held out his hand to June and she went over and sat in his lap. She bent her head down and they kissed. After what seemed like several minutes but in reality was only a few seconds, she pulled away and looked her husband in the eye and told him she tasted cum and asked if it was Justin's. He told her it was and said she had Judy's flavor all over her as well. They sat there like that and looked down toward the water about the time Justin took Judy's head in his hands and they started French kissing. Judy told John she hoped the kids were able to hold off fucking until they were back at camp as she wanted to help and watch. John asked her what she meant by help and she told him she wanted to suck them both to get them ready. John looked down at the kids again and told her she would probably only have to help Justin line up with Judy's pussy and he didn't think they would need to get ready as they were all but fucking at the water's edge. He started French kissing June again as he reached down and started fingering her clit. This caused June to moan with pleasure and broke off the kiss long enough to tell him she wanted to use the blanket they had laying there.

She stood up and laid down on her back and brought her legs to her knees and told him to just fuck her as she was still so turned on she didn't need any foreplay. He told her he wanted to eat her pussy first as he enjoyed her cum so much. He dove in with vigor and stuck his tongue as deep as he could and then took it out and played with her clit and back in again. He did this for several minutes until she clamped his head between her legs and came so hard he started gagging from the volume of liquid she was squirting. He forced his way back and she continued to squirt all over his face hard as if she was peeing. She finally stopped cumming and she looked down between her legs and started laughing. He asked her what was so funny and she told him he had cum dripping off the end of his nose and chin. He told her it was all her fault as it was her cum and if she hadn't of cum so hard and much, he wouldn't look that way. She grabbed his head and pulled him up so she could kiss him and lick her cum off his face. As she was cleaning him up she also reached down and found his dick and pulled it to her pussy and told him to fuck her and fuck her hard as she needed his cock in her right then and there. He didn't have to be told twice and rammed his dick into her hard and fucked her as hard if not harder than they had ever fucked before.

Down at the water Judy told Justin how much fun she had with their mom and how good she tasted. She said she knew when they went home she would be trying to get her girlfriends to start eating each other as she discovered she really liked pussy and she wanted them all to try it too. She then kissed her brother and pulled back and asked him if he had sucked their dad off. He told him he had and their dad had sucked him off as well. He said he might not try to get his guy friends to suck each other but there was a couple he thought might be interested but was not sure. He said he didn't want to be called gay just because he wanted to suck dick. He told her he thought they both might have turned bi-sexual that day as they did enjoy their parent of the same sex. She told him that might be true and went back to kissing him and telling him how much she loved him as a brother and she was happy their parents had brought them on this vacation. She told him that she wanted him to fuck her for the first time. He asked her if she wanted to do it at the water or back at camp. She told him back at camp in the motor home, or at least on some kind of cushion and not on the hard ground. She pulled away and jumped into the water and started splashing him and he joined her and they played just like little kids, having the time of their life.

Back at camp, John was still fucking June but had slowed down and they were both enjoying a nice slow fuck. He had cum in just a short time when he was fucking her hard but was able to remain hard, for reasons he did not know, and they started the slow fuck. They were building up to another cum each and finally June screamed at the top of her lungs that she was cumming and came so hard she drenched their crotches to the point of dripping. This caused John to add his cum to the mix. As soon as they were able to catch their breath, John pulled out and fell to her side. He looked over and saw that June had passed out from cumming so hard. He could tell she was okay because she was still breathing, even if it was labored. It took June a minute or so to regain consciousness and when she did, she opened her eyes in a start and was finally able to remember where she was and what had just happened to her. She looked and found John, still beside her, and after clearing her throat, thanked him for the best fuck they had ever had and asked him if he was okay. He told her he was fine and then pointed to the kids standing above them. She looked at them and they were both standing there with their mouths open in astonishment and finally Judy spoke up and said she hoped Justin could fuck her like that.

June told her, with difficulty as she was still coming around and trying to bring her breathing and heart beat back to normal, that all the excitement of the day is what caused them to be able to cum as hard as they did. She told her she hoped Justin, or any other man for that matter, would be able to bring her to a cum like that but not to expect or plan on it as it only happens once in a great while and this was only the second time in her entire sex life it had happened, and she had been fucking for 25 years or more. Both times had been with John, she was quick to point out. Judy looked at her dad and asked him if he could teach Justin what to do. John told her that nobody could be taught how to please their partner, it was something the partners learned together. He said the only thing he could do to help was observe and give pointers. Justin told him he would like that. June spoke up and said the pointers should only be given afterwards so as not to interrupt, or more screw up, a good fuck regardless of the technique or any other thing they would suggest. She told Judy she would help as much as she could also.

Judy told her parents she had decided she wanted Justin to be the first man to fuck her and break her cherry. She looked at her dad and told him she was sorry and he replied by telling her he thought Justin was the best choice as they were so close. He reached out his hand to her and pulled her in for a kiss. He kissed her first as a father and then as a lover. Finally he broke it off and looked at Justin and told him to go shave the small amount of scruff off his face. Justin did as he was told and June took Judy back into the motor home to prepare the bed for her first fuck with Justin. John sat there alone thinking about what had happened in such a short period of time that day and how it had all actually started back in Grants Pass. He knew his family dynamics had changed forever and he hoped it was for the best and that after today nobody regretted what they had done. About that time he heard June call his name from inside telling him to come in. He got up out of his chair and entered the motor home where June was waiting for him. He looked at her and she pointed toward the master bed where Justin and Judy were laying kissing passionately.

(End of chapter 5, can June and John control themselves?)
