Chapter 12

Back in Lakeview John and June had met Paula at the sex-toy store and had been taken back to the “Fuck Room”. Once they were in the room and they started telling Paula about some of the things like liked to do sexually, without revealing anything about them and the kids, Paula asked June to join her on the bed as she would like to have sex with her first and John could watch. She thought for another second and said she had an idea and asked John to trust her. He asked her what she meant “Trust her?” and she told him to sit down in a nice padded chair. He sat down and she went to a cabinet on the wall and took out four pair of handcuffs and turned to look at John, with a smile on her face. She then took out a thing that looked like a collar with a big ball attached to it, John and June would soon learn it was called a ball-gag. John asked her what she thought she was going to do with the cuffs and the collar thing. She told him she was going to handcuff him to the chair and put the ball-gag in his mouth so he couldn’t speak, that was when they learned what the collar thing was called. He asked her why she wanted to do that and started to get up out of the chair but June thought it sounded like fun so she sat on his lap preventing him from getting up unless he threw her on the floor. Paula came over and put the cuffs on each wrist and ankle and attached them to the rings on the chair, John and June had not seen them at first. As soon as he was cuffed, June got off his lap and Paula told her to give him a deep French kiss just to get his motor running more. June did as she was told and when she broke it off Paula put the ball-gag around his neck and bucketed it closed. John was helpless and could not speak, only moan. Paula told him she had thought about putting a blindfold on him for added excitement, she said when she couldn't see or speak it brought her to a higher of arousal and her mom, she caught herself again and stopped what she was saying. June asked her what about her mom as this was the second time she had mentioned her parents when they were talking about sex. Paula said she could tell them anything more without permission, but said her parents knew all about her sexual adventures and practices. She asked June is she was ready to experience a great time? June told her she was ready for anything and she was dripping down her legs from being so excited.

Meanwhile back Peter and Patsy's house the guys had fucked each other in the ass and had sucked their own cum out of the one they had just fucked. They four of them sat on the bed and started talking about the new family in town. Patsy wanted to know what Peter knew about them since he had sold them the property outside of town. He told them he didn't know a lot of personal things but knew they were well off financially and lived in the Seattle area. Ginny asked him why they bought the property and he told them they had said they wanted to start a nudist community and liked the property well enough to think it would make a great one, with the lake and all. Ginny asked about the kids. Peter said they were teens and seemed to get along very well, he said he thought he had even seen them kiss and it wasn't a normal brother sister kiss. He went on to tell them he felt like they were a family like theirs that liked to get together and have sex with their kids. He said they were very touchy feely. Ginny asked what the family looked like and Peter described them as best he could and said they were all very attractive and he would like to fuck both John and Justin as they had nice asses. George said Peter had always been an ass man and it didn't matter if it was male or female ass. To Peter an ass was an ass and he would fuck them all, he joked and said he was surprised the dogs in town weren't running away from Peter anytime he was near. Peter smacked him and said he was not into dogs but the sheep better watch out. Everybody laughed and Patsy wondered what John and June found when they were exploring. Ginny wondered if they found the family store down the alley and if they did what Paula had said or done with them. They all agreed Paula was a horny girl and liked to fuck as often as possible and she wasn't afraid of new people. Patsy said knowing her daughter she had them in the "Fuck Room" but she hoped she was keeping her mouth shut about the family sex, as they needed to feel out the new family before they were told. George said they should go find out and got up to leave. He told the rest of them he was going nude for the rest of the day and if they wanted to join him they were welcome.

John was cuffed and gagged sitting in the chair and Paula was between his wife's legs eating her to the eighth orgasm and all he could do was watch. He was as hard as he had ever been, even when he fucked Judy for the first time. June was almost unconscious from cumming so many times and was holding Paula's head and begging her to keep going as she screamed she was cumming once again. Paula finally pulled away, much to June's disappointment and relief. She looked up at June and asked her how she liked it and June told her she had never cum so hard so many times, even with Judy. June realized what she had said and knew the cat was out of the bag. Paula asked her if they were having sex with their kids and June could only nod her head

yes. Paula decided to throw caution to the wind and told her she was having family sex as well. She looked over at John just as he started cumming and he came so hard it landed on the floor about 2 foot away from the chair he was cuffed to. She asked him if her telling them that she had family sex was what set him off and all he could do was nod because of the gag.

Paula went over to John and took the gag out of his mouth and he was able to speak for the first time since he sat down in the chair. He asked her if incest was common in town as it was in their old neighborhood in Washington. She told him there were several families in town that liked to get together and share each other. June asked if there were any real young kids involved and Paula said the youngest she knew about was a family that had twins, a boy and girl, that were only 10 but most of the kids were 13 or older. Paula asked them how long they had been into family loving and June told her they had just started since they arrived in Lakeview but they were not turning back. Paula asked about Judy and Justin and John asked her to take the cuffs off him so they could talk. She did as he asked and he held out his hand to her and she took it and he pulled her to him so she sat on his lap. John told her that Judy was 18 and Justin was 17 and were both attractive and both bisexual as were he and June. Paula said it was obvious that she was as were her parents. As they were talking John started to become aroused again and Paula noticed since she was sitting on his lap and his dick was between her legs. As soon as he was fully hard she lifted up, held his dick and sat back down on it shoving it up into her tight pussy. She turned her head and gave John a deep French kiss and asked him if he liked her pussy. He told her it was a great pussy and was looking forward to cumming in it. She started slowly bouncing up and down and June came over and sat on the floor in front of them and bent in to eat Paula while she was fucking her husband. This drove Paula nuts and she started cumming in less than a minute and even though John had cum just a few minutes earlier, her cumming caused him to cum as well. Soon she and John came down from the orgasmic high and June started asking her more questions about her and her family as well as others in town.

Paula told them she had started having sex initially with her mom on day when she was getting ready to take a shower and her mom came in and saw her nude for the first time in quite a while. June asked her how old she was at the time. Paula said she was 15 and was still a virgin but her and a girl friend had played with each other once about a week earlier. She went on to tell them how her mom told her she was growing into a beautiful young woman and when she looked at her pussy and saw her hair she asked her if she liked it. Paula asked her what did mean did she like her pussy hair. Her mom took her pants off and showed Paula that she was shaved bald. Paula asked her why she was bald and was told her dad liked it that was as it didn't get in the way when they had sex. Paula did the usual for a teen and went "EWWW" she didn't want to hear about her parents having sex, it was gross. Patsy told her not to judge them unless she knew what she was talking about and pulled up her pants and told Paula to get her shower and quit wasting water. Paula said it was her fault as she would have been almost finished if she hadn't pulled down her pants to show her bald pussy to her. Patsy said fine, they could talk later. Paula said fine and jumped into the shower. She told John and June while she was taking her shower she felt her pussy hair and looked at it and wonder what it would look like bald now that she was started to get older. She remembered, just like every other preteen, how she couldn't wait for it to grow and then she would know she was growing up and then since she had never had sex with anybody she never gave it a second thought. Now that her mom had said something about sex and how when her and her girlfriend and played around with each other it seemed weird to feel hair down there. She finished her shower and dried herself off. She went looking for her mom and found her in the kitchen getting a snack. Paula asked her if they could talk then.

Patsy told her of course and they sat down at the table. Paula asked her if they could talk about what she was saying in the bathroom about sex and pussy hair and stuff. Patsy told her they could talk about anything she wanted.

While she was talking June noticed she was getting wet between her legs and she told Paula she was getting turned on and she hadn't even got to the juicy stuff yet. John said it was because she was putting herself into Patsy's place and Paula was Judy. June said he was probably right and told Paula to continue.

Paula continued her story and told them how she and her mom must have sat at the table for over an hour talking. She said they didn't do anything that day but it made her think about a lot of things but sex with her parents was not one of them. She said she called her girlfriend she had played with and asked if they could get together later and hang out. She was told they could. Later, she said, she went to her friend's house and they went to her room where they sat down on the bed and started talking about boys and sex and stuff and before they knew it they were kissing. Paula said she put her hand on her friends boob and rubbed it through her top and soon both girls were naked.

The thought of what her mom said about pussy hair came into her mind and she looked down at her friend and saw she had a thin covering and then she looked at her own and saw it was about the same. She asked her friend if she had ever thought about shaving her pussy hair off. Her friend said she had not and asked Paula why. Paula told her about the conversation she had with her mom and how her mom had showed her that she shaved. The girls had never done anything more than touch and feel each other up, but Paula said she wanted to find out what it was like to eat her friend's pussy. Her and her mom had talked about oral sex and how girls would sometimes play with each other and eating pussy was always part of it. She told her friend to lay back and she was going to try something. The friend did and soon, Paula told John and June, she was face to pussy with her friend and when she got her first up close and personal look she saw what her mom was talking about. She went on to tell them how she found the hair, even as sparse as it was, covered some of her friend's pussy and when she stuck her tongue out and took the first taste, how it got into her mouth and she didn't like it. She decided right then her hair was going to go forever. She ate her friend out and because it was their first time doing oral, the friend started cumming after only a few licks. She grabbed Paula's head and told her not to stop so Paula said she continued until her friend shoved her away and covered her pussy and told Paula she was too sensitive for any more. Paula said she became addicted to pussy that day. Her friend told her it was her turn and she went down on her. After just a couple of licks her friend lifted her head and told Paula she could see what she was saying about the hair and as soon as she made Paula cum they should shave each other bald. Paula told her to get busy then as she wanted to shave but not before she was able to cum for the last time with hair. The friend brought Paula to a wonderful cum and they both lay on their backs looking at the ceiling with a smile on their face. Paula was the first to speak and she told her friend how good her pussy tasted and this was not going to be the only time they ate each other. The friend agreed and then she asked Paula if she was serious about shaving each other bald. Paula said she was so they went to the bathroom where the girl got out a new razor and the shave cream.

The girls proceeded to shave each other bald, including what little hair they found around their puckers. This was the first time they had looked at each other this close and they both commented on how cute their pussy's were and when they were totally bald, they made sure to clean any loose hair and excess shave cream. They went back to the room and started making out again as the shaving had turned them both on once more. They got into a 69 position for the first time and before either realized it they were also sucking each other's ass hole. Both decided they liked it and stuck their tongue as deep as they could into each other. They didn't even have to play with their pussys and they were cumming. Paula said she figured out real fast that day she liked women and really like ass play. She said she finally went home and when she walked in the door she heard her parents in their room making all sorts of noise.

She figured they were probably having sex and curiosity got the better of her and she quietly opened their door and looked in. What she saw shocked her. She said she saw not only her mom and dad but also her Aunt Ginny, her mom's sister, and they were all naked and Ginny was on her knees eating her mom and her dad was behind Ginny fucking her. She stood there frozen and started to shut the door but her dad happened to look her way and she got caught. She said he stopped fucking her Aunt and told the women they had an audience. They both turned their heads and saw Paula standing there. About then John, June and Paula heard somebody clear their throat and looked toward the door and saw Peter, Patsy, George and Ginny standing there naked with smiles on their faces.

John asked how long they had been standing there and George said long enough to know that they were cool with the family sex issue and the four of them walked into the room and sat down on the bed. Paula went to her dad and sat on his lap and asked him to forgive her for telling the family secret and he told her it was okay as he could tell John and June were fine with it but warned her it could have gone the other way and they could all be in serious trouble. John said he and June had just started having sex with Judy and Justin and wished they would have started it when they were little to have been able to enjoy them before they mature. Peter asked them if they were talking pedo sex and Judy said she found the idea of the family with the 10 year olds to be a real turn on and hoped they could meet them. Ginny told her they would as the town was fairly open about family sex. Patsy and Ginny to welcome John sucked his dick into their mouths and then said welcome to Lakeview. They welcomed June but sucking on her pussy as well. It quickly turned into an impromptu orgy of sorts with everybody suck and fucking.

(I think I will end this chapter here. What is going to happen? I don't even know at this point, stay tuned for chapter 13)
