Chapter 13

Judy and Justin decided it was time to get on the road heading back to Lakeview after spending several days home gathering tools and building supplies. Justin called his parents to see if there was anything besides the Jeep and tools they needed them to bring down. He was told a few other things and reminded to bring his sister back with him. He laughed as did his mom, who he was talking to, and he told her he would never leave her behind as he would miss having sex with her and so would, he stopped what he was saying and June asked him so would who? He said he should probably tell her they had met a great gal named Amber on the bus going north and she had been having sex with him and Judy since they arrived in Seattle. They were going to stop and meet her parents in Portland and then stop in drop her off in Eugene. Justin told his mom they would probably be at least 4 or 5 days before they got back in Lakeview because of all the stops. He said he expected to spend at least 1 or 2 days at Amber's parent's home. June asked him all about Amber and what she thought of him and Judy being brother and sister and he told her Amber and her parents were also into family sex and she had actually started to whole affair they had been having in Seattle, that was the reason he figured they would be spending so long in Portland. She asked him how old Amber was and he told her she was 23 and had a couple of other siblings.

Justin told her she had a brother Allan who is 19 and a sister Alison who is 15. June asked him if she was having sex with them as well. Justin told her she probably was because of what she had said about her family so far but she had never come right out and said she was. June told him he should hang up and finish getting ready to leave. He told her he loved her and to tell his dad he was looking forward to getting home and having some man sex time. June told him he had become a male slut and Justin told her any time he could he would and laughed. She laughed as well and told him to kiss his sister and Amber for her and to be safe and drive careful heading south and they would see them in a few days. Before she hung up she told him to be sure to call when they left Portland and also when they were leaving Eugene. He promised he would and they hung up. He went to find the girls and when he found them they were of course eating each other's pussy and Justin could tell they had been at it for a while as their faces were completely covered in pussy juice and cum. He stood there watching them for a minute and finally cleared his throat and told them it was time to get in the Jeep and head south. Amber and Judy both groaned but said if they had to stop they guessed they would.

The three of them went around the house making sure everything was locked and ready for them to leave. Justin called the alarm company and told them they were heading back to Lakeview and would be gone until the end of August or first of September. They told him to have a good time and they had John's cell number in case anything happened. Judy and Amber were outside waiting for him to finish. He finished the phone conversation, set the alarm, locked and closed the door and told the girls it was time to go. They stopped for fuel at the station they normally used and the cashier inside saw Justin walking in and asked him where they had been as she hadn't seen him for quite a while. He told her they were vacationing in South Eastern Oregon and had even bought a large piece of land there. She asked if they were moving and he told her he didn't think so but didn't know for sure. She looked at him with lust in her eyes, even she was 25 but had the hots for his teen ass but had never done anything about it for fear of getting in trouble because Justin was under 18, and told him she would miss seeing him and hoped they would be back soon. Justin told her it would be late August at the earliest. She gave a little pout look. He told her they would be back and she was still his favorite cashier. He got bold, looked around and didn't see anybody, and reached over the counter for her and pulled her closer, bent toward her and French kissed her without asking for permission. She returned the kiss and when they were done, she looked at him and said she never expected that but if he wanted to stick around she was getting off work in an hour and she could kiss something else for him, as she was looking at his crotch. He told her he was sorry but he had to go and gave her a short peck kiss and turned to leave. She told him she would be there and hoped when he got back they could hook up. She got brave and told him she would like to fuck him blind. He just smiled and thanked her and told her that would give him something to look forward to on his return as he thought she was pretty hot herself. He went out and got in the Jeep and Judy asked him what took him so long to pay for the gas. He told her about the cashier and she asked him if he didn't think he had enough pussy with her and their mom and then she looked at Amber and added her as well. Justin told her the cashier was just too hot to pass up if she wanted to fuck him when they got back he was going to go for it. Amber fake pouted and said she thought she was his girl friend and he turned to her with a shocked look and asked her if she was serious. She said she would think about it and for him to get the Jeep in gear and head south, she was anxious to see her family.

The three of them mainly listened to music, at full volume, while they were on the freeway heading toward Portland. They had to stop a couple of times at rest stops to pee and around Longview-Kelso they decided to stop for something to eat. They found a fast food joint grabbed some burgers and sodas and ate them fast. When they got back on the road they turned the music down and Amber asked to sit up front so when they got into the Portland area she could give Justin, who insisted on driving, directions. About an hour after they left Longview-Kelso they crossed the river and entered Oregon. Amber gave Justin directions to her parents and called them to let them know they were about 10 minutes away. They told her they were looking forward to them stopping she could tell her mom was excited because it had been a couple of months since they were last together. They soon arrived at Amber's parents and the Jeep was hardly stopped and Amber was out and running toward the house. She looked back and apologized and yelled for Justin and Judy to hurry up. They had jumped out and were walking up the walk when she told them to hurry. Judy told her it was okay for her to go inside but to leave the door open and they would just walk in. Amber said okay and about that time the door opened and her mom came rushing out to greet her. Angie, her mom wrapped her arms around her daughter and they kissed in a non mother daughter way. Amber was the one to break it off after about 30 seconds and introduced her to Judy and Justin. Angie started to apologize for the display and Amber told her it was okay as they came from a family just like theirs. Angie went to each of them and French kissed them as well knowing it was okay. She finally told the three to come inside and relax. She linked arms with Amber and they all went inside. Justin and Judy were still a little bit nervous as they had never been around another family that had sex with each other, even though in their neighborhood in Washington they knew there were families that did but they had never witnessed it until then. It made Justin think about how they as a family were now and he was anxious to see his parents, even if it had not been that long since they left them.

Back in Lakeview, Peter and George and their wives along with Paula were getting to know John and Judy in a very familiar way. The women were all having lezzy sex and the guys started out watching and soon Peter reached over and grabbed John's dick, surprising John. Peter asked if it was okay and to answer him John reached out and took Peter's in his hand. George said he felt left out and John told him to come over as he had two hands. The three guys jacked each other off to the site of the women and soon Peter asked John if he did more than just hand jobs. John told him he and Justin had just started having guy sex before Justin went back to Washington but he thought he liked it and was looking forward to more of it. George took that as a cue and took John's head in his hands and started kissing him. John returned the kiss without hesitation and soon it was the women watching the men have sex. The men got into a male version of a daisy chain and was each sucking the next guy off. The women all encouraged them on and soon June asked George and Peter to cum on John's face. John looked at her kind of funny and she said what was good for the goose, her and Judy, was good for the gander, him. He told the guys to go for it and it didn't take long before Peter said he was going to cum and started cumming on him and George was quick to follow. June started to go over to clean John up but Ginny stopped her and said Paula would do it as she was the biggest cum slut. Paula thanked her Aunt for the compliment and started licking and sucking the cum off of John's face. Paula licked and sucked the cum off John's face and several times they French kissed which caused the rest of the adults to become aroused once again.

Ginny and Patsy looked at June and saw she was getting flushed looking and decided to ask her if she had ever been with two men and two women at the same time. June told then she had not but if they were asking the answer was yes. June told them she would love for the guys to fuck her in her ass and pussy at the same time and the women to be available for her to please with her mouth. Everybody thought it was a terrific idea. By this time Paula had cleaned John up and they sat there listening and watching the whole thing. Peter was on his back and June had faced him. He inserted his dick into her pussy and she looked back at George and told him to go for it as she was ready to have her ass filled as well. She told the gals they would have to figure out and help her when it came to them as she had not idea how to take care of the two of them at the same time. Ginny told her they were going lay side by side and June could eat one of them while she used her fingers on the other and she could switch back and forth.

When she returned she had a video and a still camera. She handed John the video camera and she took the still camera and they both started filming. June was the only one that was unaware of what was happening because when Paula left to get the cameras John asked her if she would like to be blindfolded so she could have a new experience. June told him it sounded like fun so John did just that. John and Paula were both getting excited watching June be pleased by the other four people. June was saying how full she felt with Peter and George both fucking her and it was exciting not knowing which pussy she was eating and which one she was finger fucking. Ginny told her she was one of the best pussy lickers she had ever had the pleasure of having eaten her pussy and she couldn't wait to trade places so she could eat June's pussy. This caused June to start cumming on Peter's dick as she continued switching back and forth between the women. Soon she was staying on only one woman and she wasn't doing a very good job as she was in a state of continuous cumming. George thought it would be fun to see what June would do if he spanked her ass cheeks. He looked at John and indicated what he wanted to do and John could only shrug his shoulders to indicate go for it but he didn't know what would happen.

George spanked June's left cheek semi hard and all that it did was cause her to moan in pleasure. He decided to go for it and he spanked her right cheek hard enough to actually leave a hand print. June screamed out and nobody was sure if it was from the pain or pleasure until Peter said she clamped down on his dick so hard with her pussy he thought she was going to cut it off. George and Peter continued fucking her and George every now and then would spank one of her cheeks. He didn't do it constantly and soon June was begging him to spank her and spank her hard. George complied and didn't hold back. Soon her ass cheeks were bright red and radiating heat. Peter was the first to announce he was going to cum and June begged him to fill her pussy. He no sooner started cumming and George started to cum as well. June could feel both of them squirting into her body and she could only beg them to fill her. Soon both guys were spent and George pulled his softening dick out of her ass and June fell to her side pulling Peter out of her pussy when she did. Paula saw all of the cum leaking out of June and handed the camera to her mom and dove in face first and started sucking the cum out of both of June's holes. Patsy made sure she got it all on film. June was still blindfolded as she didn't remove it herself and nobody else cared. This cause June to start cumming once again and soon she shoved Paula away and clamped her legs closed tight and shook in the biggest cum of the day. She came for almost a minute and was shaking and panting the entire time. She finally calmed down, took the blindfold off and looked around the room.

She was everybody staring at her and John bent down and asked her if she was okay. She told him she was more than okay and if she had to cum like that every time, she would be dead in a week from a heart attack. He asked her what she meant and she told him her heart was still beating harder than she could ever remember and he could see her breathing hard. She told him it was the best cum of her entire life and she hoped she could repeat it again some day but quickly added not too soon. About that time she noticed the cameras and asked if she had been filmed. She was told she was both with video and still photos. This started to excite her once again and she said she wanted to see them as soon as she could and asked if they were any good. Paula said it was the best fucking she had ever seen and she knew she would cum each time she looked at the video and photos if the digital recordings were half as good as the real life show. June thanked her for filming her and motioned for Paula to come closer. As soon as Paula was within reach, she held out her hands and took Paula's in her hands and pulled her to her and kissed her hard and passionately. Everybody could see and hear Paula starting to get excited from the kiss and John bent down and whispered into June's ear, she nodded in understanding. She broke the kiss and looked at Patsy and asked if Paula could go home with them as they would like to enjoy more of her. Patsy said it was up to Paula since she was now 18. June asked Paula if she would like to and she replied by kissing June hard once again and said yes she would love to. The party broke up as Peter reminded everybody they were still in the store and it should probably reopen for at least a couple more hours just in case one of the horny townsfolk wanted to buy something. He added he needed to get back to the office and see how the purchase was going for John and June. With that everybody headed to the door. John and June took their clothes with them in bags but nobody bothered to get dressed. June asked Peter if he was going to work in the Real Estate office nude and Peter replied he did it often and nobody cared. June looked at John and told him they had found the best place for vacation and the new community they were going to develop. June kissed Paula once again and told her they would be back in a couple of hours to pick her up and take her to their place. Paula smiled and said she was looking forward to fucking them again later that day.

(This chapter jumped around as most of the previous chapters. We left Judy and Justin in Portland at Amber's parent's house. Wonder what they are up to and how soon before they head south again?)
