Chapter 17

Judy and Justin along with Amber's family all went out to a nice dinner and were soon full and just enjoying after dinner conversation when Andy said he had a surprise for his daughters. They asked him what it was and he told them it would not be a surprise if he told them. He said it was time to go and they all stood up. He paid the bill and left a rather large tip for the staff and they walked out to the parking lot. He told Amber and Alison to take off their tops and he was going to use them as blindfolds. They asked him why they were being blindfolded and he said to add to the surprise. They did as he asked and everybody got into the car. The girls were blindfolded and Andy told the rest of them they were not to say out loud where they were only general conversation was allowed. He drove to a tattoo-piercing studio and pulled into the parking lot. He looked at Angie, nodded his head and she smiled back indicating she approved. He said they were at their destination but for Amber and Alison to remain blindfolded. He got out and went into the studio first to explain the blindfolds and the surprise for his daughters. The owner had no problem and invited them in. He told his staff and the rest of the customers to not give away where they were. The rest of the family walked through the door and he said “Welcome to Bob’s pizza joint”. All eyes were on the two topless girls. Amber said it didn’t smell like a pizza joint but she wanted to know what the buzzing sound was. About that time she realized where they were and took off her blindfold and grabbed Alison’s as well.

She looked at her dad and then her mom and started to ask why they were there and Andy asked the girls if they were ready for the piercings they had been talking about. They both said yes and Bob said for them to sit down and he needed to go over several things with them before he would do the piercings. He asked Alison how old she was and what she wanted done. She told him she was 18, of course he and everybody else knew she wasn’t, and she wanted to have her pussy lips pierced with the largest barrel rings he could put in them. He asked her why so large and she explained to him about wanting holes big enough to put fingers through and pull hard as she was being eaten or fucked. He said the size was unusual for somebody so young but he could make the holes about an inch in diameter. Her eyes got huge and she said that is just what she wanted and if they stretched even bigger through the years it was okay with her. He looked at Amber and asked her what she wanted done.

She was almost hesitant to tell him she only wanted her nipples pierced and not that large of gauge. He told her not to be embarrassed because she didn’t want what her sister wanted. He asked her how old she was and she told him she was over 21 and he replied he thought she was but wanted to make sure. He asked her if she wanted horizontal or vertical piercings and she said she had thought about both to form a plus sign but now that she was here she wanted to have horizontal only at this time. He said they should only be done one direction and they could be done vertically later with no problems. He looked at the rest of the group. Justin, Allan and Andy said there was no way they were getting anything pierced and Judy asked Justin what he thought their parents would say if she came home with her hood pierced. He told her it was up to her if she wanted to do it. Judy said she would like it done. Angie said she was going to wait but she might want her hood pierced at a later date. The piercer went over all the care instructions and when he got to the point of telling Alison and Judy could not have sex for a minimum of six weeks and maybe even longer for Alison, the girls almost backed down. They both thought about it and decided to go for it. They both said they could at least give head and wondered about getting butt fucked. He told them no sex except they could perform oral or hand jobs but they were not to have any themselves. Judy held Alison's hand and told her how horny they were both going to be and they should get together when it was time and see who got raped the hardest. Alison asked her dad if they could go to Lakeview in six weeks and he told her he thought it could be arranged for at least a long weekend. Bob had all the paperwork signed and said it was time. Bob asked who wanted to go first and since Alison was having the most drastic she wanted to.

They all went back to the piercing area and Bob told Alison she needed to take off her shorts. She looked at the rest of them and stripped completely naked. He told her to get up on his piercing table, which was nothing more than a medical exam table you see in a Dr's office. When she laid back he pulled out the stirrups and told her to put her feet in them. He looked at Angie and said he thought she should hold her down as it was going to hurt. Angie asked him if he had any restraints to tie her down with. He smiled and opened the drawer under the table and took out several belts and even a set of nipple clamps. Alison saw the belts and said she thought they were a good idea. She then saw the nipple clamps and asked him why he got those out. He told her if her nipples were clamped when he started to cut she was less likely to notice the pain as much. She asked him why and he said that the clamps were bare teethered and clamped down very hard and he would have one of her family on each nipple and when he told them to clamp her they would and he would make the first cut. She told them all she was ready and between Angie and Bob they quickly had her belted in place. He asked who wanted to do her nipples and she said she wanted Judy and Amber to do them. Amber got on one side and Judy got on the other and played with her nipples to get them harder, not that they could get much harder she was so excited and nervous. Bob asked her if she was ready and she told him she was. He cleaned the area and there was no major problem with location since he was going to make such large holes, he just needed to make sure he was deep enough so she didn't tear later. After her was happy he told her it was time and picked up the scalpel and told Judy and Amber to get ready. He took hold of one of her lips and told the girls to clamp her. Justin and Alan were holding her hands and Andy and Angie were wiping her brow and telling her how proud they were of her and she would do fine.

As soon as the girls clamped her nipples he made the first cut. Because he was not a medical professional, he did not have the Novocain to inject into her lips to make them numb. He only had a topical numbing agent and it only sort of helped. Alison screamed when he cut her and Angie told her it would be better soon. Bob finished the cut and inserted the barrel. He wiped away the blood and told her to take some deep breathes. He asked her if she wanted to stop before he did the second lip and she told him to finish what he started but begged him to please do it quickly as she wasn't sure she could stand the pain much longer. Bob said if she was sure and she screamed at him "Mother Fucker finish what you started". He looked at Andy and Andy asked him to hurry. Bob said okay and without another word he cut and inserted the barrel in the other lip. Alison passed out from the pain. Bob said he was finished and told Andy and Angie to unsecure her and the girls to take the nipple clamps off. He sent Alan to the refrigerator to get some orange juice he had in there and Justin to get a wet wash cloth. After a couple of minutes, she came around and when she opened her eyes she asked if he was finished. Amber and Judy were holding her and told her Bob was finished and told her to relax and drink some of the orange juice. She able to sort of sit up drank it slowly. Angie told her how proud of her she was and asked her if she wanted to see her new decorations. Alison nodded her head and Bob handed her a hand mirror. She looked at her pussy and broke out into a huge smile. She told Bob she was sorry she had yelled at him and called him a Mother Fucker. He told her to think nothing of it since he had hurt her so much and asked if she liked what she saw. She said she loved it and was already looking forward to when they were healed up so she could play again. She looked at her mom for a second and then back at Bob. She said since her pussy was out of commission, thanks to him, could she give him a blow job as her way of thanking him. He started to say something but Andy spoke up and told him it was all right if he wanted it as Alison did give a mean blow job. Bob asked Andy if he was sure and Andy told him to go for it. Bob looked back at Alison and said he would be happy to have her suck him off.

With that he undid his pants and dropped them to the floor and stepped out of them. He walked up to the table with his dick sticking straight out. Alison looked at his dick for a second and then sucked him all the way in until her nose was buried in his pubes. Alison had a technique that she could bring a guy off almost within seconds and she thought Bob would enjoy it. It only took Bob about 30 seconds and he said he was going to cum. He started to pull out but Alison reached up and grabbed his ass and held him in place until he was done cumming down her throat. As soon as she felt the last spurt, she let go and he pulled out. She swallowed and then smiled at Bob and thanked him for his cum and she hoped he liked it. He told her even though it was fast, it was probably the best blow job he had ever had. About that time Amber said it was her turn. Everybody helped Alison off the table but she couldn't sit yet so she stood up on shaky legs with Andy and Justin helping hold her up. Amber was already topless and jumped up on the table.

Bob asked her if she still wanted to go horizontal and she said after watching her sister, she wanted to go ahead and go both vertical and horizontal at the same time. He told her he didn't recommend it because of the difficulty doing it safely. She gave a little pout and told him he was the pro so if that is what he said then okay. He suggested she get one horizontal and one vertical just for fun. She liked that idea and he asked her which nipple for each and she said it didn't matter as they were going to be done both ways as soon as they healed enough. She said surprise her. He said okay. He cleaned her nipples and asked her if she was ready. She said she was. Judy and Angie held her hands and Andy put his hand over her eyes so she couldn't see. Bob quickly pierced her left nipple and Amber only moaned a little bit saying it hurt pretty bad but it couldn't be anywhere near as bad and what Alison felt. She told him to do the other one. Bob did the other one and she moaned but this time it was more of a moan of pleasure. As soon as she started the second moan she also lifted her hips like she was trying to fuck the air. She finally settled down after almost a minute and Andy took his hand off her eyes. She opened them and looked at him with a huge smile on her face and said that the last one had caused her to cum. Everybody in the room went DUHHH!!! And they all laughed including Alison and herself. Bob finished cleaning her up and helped her sit up. She handed her the mirror and she looked at her new jewelry. Bob had pierced her left nipple vertically and her right horizontally. She told him she loved them but she was not going to suck him off. He faked a pout and then smiled and said he didn't think he could get it up anyway after the blow job her sister had just given him. He asked who was next. Judy said she had changed her mind and everybody told her it was okay and Angie said she still wanted to wait as she had to very sore daughters to take care of. Andy went with Bob to the front to take care of the money while everybody else helped the girls out to the front. Alison said she was going home nude since she knew trying to put her shorts on was going to hurt. Amber came in topless so her top was in the car anyway. Alison could only waddle when she walked and she told Bob she sure hoped it was all going to be worth it when she healed. He reminded her no sex for a long time and she told him the way she felt right then it might be never. He chuckled and told her all women that get their lips pierced say that and he had even pierced a gal even larger one time and she was ready for hard fucking in less than three months. He told her and Amber to come in a couple of days so he could see how they were doing. Andy said he would make sure they were there and shook Bob's hand thanking him. They all walked out to the parking lot and Alison gently was able to get in the car and sit down. She actually more laid back rather than sit. The ride home was a little rough on her but they made it and Amber and Judy helped Alison to her bed where she quickly fell dead asleep. They came out of her room and joined the rest of the family, told them all Alison was sleeping. Justin asked if Amber was up for fucking and she told him as long as he left her nipples alone she was. They took off for her room. Judy was sitting with Angie and they started making out and soon they were on the floor in a 69 position and Andy and Allan were jacking off each other on the couch. Soon the guys joined the girls on the floor also in a 69 position. It didn't take long and they all were cumming in the mouth of the person who was giving them head. After they had all cum, they all sat up and Angie said how much she liked Judy and Justin and was so happy they had met Amber on the bus. Judy told her she was happy as well and then asked Allan to take her to his room and make love to her the rest of the night. Allan said he would be happy to and they two teens got up and walked hand in hand to his room leaving Angie and Andy alone. They talked about what had happened that night and decided they needed to head to Lakeview at the same time as Judy and Justin to meet John and June. They headed for bed and called it a night as they had cum about as much as they were going to anyway.

(Chapter 17 comes to an end. Wow I never thought this story would be so long. Back to Lakeview in the next chapter.)
