Chapter 19

June and the rest of them had quite the conversation after the couple left. June told Judy she was not for sale and had no intention of ever being for sale. She laughed and said the next time Judy tried to sell her however for Judy to watch out as she would not sell her but give her away and tell the person they could do anything as long as it left her able to recover from any abuse they dumped on her. Judy told her mom she was sorry but she didn't know the couple was serious until it was almost too late. Amber said she had thought about offering herself to the couple but chickened out when they started talking about all the toys they had and how they would hurt June real bad. She wondered if her sister would have gone with them as she was so much of a pain slut. Judy told her they could find out when her family came down. Amber said she would mention it to Alison and see what she thought.

John, Peter and George had a great meeting concerning the plans John had for the new community. George suggested it be gated to assure privacy for the residents and John said he had thought of that as well since he didn't want just anybody to be able to drive in without people knowing. Peter asked him how free the sex was going to be and John said if people wanted to do it in their front yards they could. George asked if there was going to be any age minimum for the kids involved and John said he might suggest any kid under 10 to be kept indoors if they were fucking or having sex with them but 11 and older could openly fuck where ever they wanted and with whomever they wanted. Peter wanted to know what types of sex would be permitted and John said it would be a pretty much anything goes including BDSM and animal sex if that is what the people were into. He said he planned on meeting with the first residents and have them help him write up the CC&R's. George thought that sounded like a good idea. John said he knew there would be lots of sex between same sex couples, groups and gang bangs. He said he was planning a park and in it would not only be kids play equipment but also some of the BDSM play equipment like St. Andrews Crosses and stocks, whipping posts and even a hitching rail like they used to have in the old west for horses. Peter asked him why that and John said if a Master or Mistress brought their slave to the park on a leash they needed a place to tie them to stay. The slaves would probably be both male and female.

All the talk about slaves and whipping posts started to get to George and he asked John what he thought about it for himself and John told him he had fun in the fuck room but wasn't into the BDSM scene too much otherwise. George said the thought of tying some young girl to the whipping post or putting her in the stocks and fucking her until she almost passed out and then whipping her turned him on. He said he wished they had something like that now as he knew a couple of 12 year old girls that were into family fucking and also pain he would like to do. Peter told him he could wait until John built his community. John told him if they approved everything he could get started on it within a week and he would build the park first so George could have his fun. He asked George if the girl's parents would go along with it and George told him he thought they would as he had seen both fathers take off their belts and whip the girls in the store for back talking them. George said he would make sure all the permits were approved without question and if John wanted to start without them he could. John thanked him and said he needed to talk to June but he was sure he would. Peter asked John if he had talked to June about the BDSM plans and John said he had not but thought June would be okay with it as long as she was not the recipient of any of the whippings or put in the stocks where people could come by and fuck her without asking.

June and Judy were talking about what had just happened in the store and June asked Judy what she thought of being somebody's slave. Judy said she didn't want to be anybody's slave and then she looked at Amber and smiled. June asked what the smile was all about and Judy told her how she and Amber talked about turning Justin into their own sex slave. June said she didn't think that would happen but she wouldn't mind if she could have him as well. The three of them laughed. Paula had heard bits and pieces of the conversation and told Judy she had some nice safe pills she could give her to help. Judy thanked her but said she wanted him to do it willingly if it happened. She said she thought he would do it to be able to continue fucking her, Amber and now her mom. Amber said she knew her sister would want to be a slave to them when she came down and she might even want to stay there long term.

Back in Portland Alison was getting frustrated because she was so horny and couldn't fuck because of the huge holes she had in her pussy lips. She was getting tired of giving her family oral sex and not getting any satisfaction for herself. She called Bob and asked him if she could at least use a vibrator or dildo. He told her to come into the shop and he would check her out and tell her after he examined her. She thanked him and hung up the phone. She asked her brother to go with her and they went to see Bob. When they got to the shop and Bob saw them he told her to get in the piercing chair so he could have a look. She took off her clothes and climbed into the chair. Bob finished up with the customer he was with when they came in and walked over to see how she was doing. As soon as he sat down she lifted her legs up and put her ankles on his shoulders allowing him full access to her pussy. He looked at her and then took a lip in each hand and as soon as he touched her she moaned. He asked her if it hurt and she said no, it had just been so long since anybody had been able to touch her she might cum while he examined her. He looked at the piercings very close and pulled on her lips some, not too hard or far, and after a couple of minutes told her she looked healed up enough to have gentle sex. She asked him what gentle sex was and rather than answer her he used his finger on her clit to bring her off. It only took about 30 seconds before she started cumming and since it had been a while she even squirted all over him and the floor. Bob and Allan laughed at her but she could do nothing but slowly come down from her orgasm. As soon as she was able she thanked Bob and asked him what she owed him for the exam and he told her he just wanted to fuck her after she was good and healed since she had such a nice tight pussy and it was also quite cute after he put the huge holes in her lips. She told him they were heading to Lakeview in a couple of weeks and if he thought they could fuck she would be back the day before they left. He told her he thought in a couple of weeks she could fuck but to come by and if they could they would, if not he wanted a rain check. Allan told him he would come back with her to help her out the door if she could fuck as he knew she would be anxious to. Allan and Alison left the shop and went home.

They walked through the door and Alison was stripping off her clothes before the door was even closed. Angie came out of the kitchen and saw her daughter getting naked and asked if she could fuck yet. Alison told her she could not but she could at least play with her clit and get off instead of being frustrated and not be able to cum. Angie told her she could wait as she needed help in the kitchen with dinner. Alison grumbled but went with her mom. As soon as they were in the kitchen, Angie took her in her arms and kissed her long and hard. They played tonsil hockey for about a minute and finally Alison broke it off to catch her breath. She looked at her mom and asked her what brought that on. Angie told her she loved her and missed making love to her and was happy she could now at least bring her off by rubbing her clit. She told Alison to get up on the counter as she wanted to finger fuck her and if she made enough cum it was going into the dinner she was making. Alison jumped up on the counter and Angie started finger banging her daughter. It didn't take long for Alison to start cumming and she was able to tell Angie she better grab a bowl as she thought it was going to be huge. No sooner had Angie grabbed the bowl and got it in front of Alison and she started squirting bigger and harder than she had done at Bob's. She finally stopped cumming and Angie looked into the bowl and saw about a cup of whitish liquid. She knew it was all cum and not pee because of the color. She showed it to Alison, who was astonished she made so much, and then dumped it into the meal she was preparing. She told Alison not to tell the guys it would be their secret ingredient. Alison laughed and said she was looking forward to eating it as well as she did like the taste of her own cum. They continued to finish up dinner and soon it was time to eat.

Angie told Alison to go get the guys while she finished putting dinner on the table. As soon as Alison walked into the living room to get Andy and Allan, she stopped and started laughing. Angie heard her and came in to see what was so funny and saw that Alison had found her dad and brother had just finished sucking each other off and both had shot their cum on the face of the other. Angie asked Andy why they did that instead of swallowing each others cum and Allan answered instead saying they wanted to know what gals felt when they were taking facials from guys. Alison and Angie went over and licked and sucked the cum from the guy's faces and after they were finished, Angie said dinner was probably cold by then. Andy told her he was sorry as he and Allan had no plans to even begin playing with each other but it just happened. She told him she knew what it was like as her and Alison had played in the kitchen while getting dinner ready. She said she had also discovered a new ingredient for dinner tonight and she hoped everybody liked it. Allan asked her what it was and she said it was her new secret ingredient and she was not going to tell them, especially if they all liked it. She smiled at Alison and grabbed her hand and pulled her to her and kissed her hard on the lips. Alison moaned and said she could cum just from kissing it had been so long since she had had sex. Andy asked her how her pussy was healing and she told him it was almost healed according to Bob. He told her he was anxious for it to be ready to fuck as he missed it and was looking forward to fucking her with her new holes in her lips. He said he even wanted to try sticking his dick through one of the holes and then into her pussy to see how that was. She told him she hadn't thought about that but it sounded like fun if it worked. With that Angie said dinner was almost for sure cold by then but they were going to eat it anyway.

They all went to the table where Angie had a nice pot of homemade clam chowder. Alison's cum blended right in so they couldn't see the color. Angie hoped it added just the right flavor to make it special. Andy was the first to taste the chowder and asked Angie what she had added to it as he could tell something was different. Alison asked him if it was good different or bad. Andy said it was very good different and asked again what the secret ingredient was. Angie said she was not going to tell them as she wanted to keep it a secret but she would be using it as often as she could but it was quite expensive and not that easy to get. As she was saying it she looked at Alison and they exchanged a smile between them that did not go unnoticed. Allan said they had some kind of secret and Angie said they did because Alison knew what the secret ingredient was as she had helped with dinner. The guys continued through dinner trying to get the gals to tell them what they had put in the chowder but Angie held her ground and finally said maybe someday she would tell them but tonight was not the night. After dinner, Angie said the guys could clean up since her and Alison had cooked and Andy said he thought it was a good idea, hoping to figure out what the secret ingredient was. Angie had already washed the bowl she had used so they wouldn't find it. She and Alison went into the living room and looked through the pay porn channels looking for something good to watch later. They settled on some bad MILF show they knew would get the guys off again since most of the women had huge tits and shaved pussys. Angie wanted the guys to give them both facials and she told Alison the guys were going to do the clean up with the mouths afterwards. Alison said she liked the idea but wanted to be sure she got off as well. Angie told her to lay back and spread her legs.

Back in Lakeview everything was starting to happen for the new community John was going to build. Word had got out about the project and Peter had been approached by a couple of families that were interested in moving in so they could openly fuck their kids in the park area while the kids were in the stocks. Peter asked the families what else they were into and he was told they were into just about anything and everything as long as all parties were willing and agreed. They added that they were no into anything that would cause permanent damage and or death. They did say piercings, tattoos and brands didn't count though and the women showed Peter their pierced nipples and each hand a brand above their pussy. He told them he thought they would fit in and took their names and information for background checks. He relayed the information about the families to John and John said he thought Peter should be the agent to rent all of the properties and they signed a contract stating as such. It had been decided the community was going to be only rentals so John and Peter had total control. June, Judy and Amber were out shopping and getting supplies for back at camp while Justin made sure they had everything the guys needed to build first building on the property near their motor home. Amber decided she needed to call home and talk to her family. She did and found out how Alison was healing and the family planned on heading there in about a month. She told them she couldn't wait for them to get there and meet John and June as well as see the area.

(This looks like a good place to stop and let you ponder what you just read. When is the ground going to be broke for the new community? Is it going to be everything imagined?)
