

Jeff and Nicky

Bro/sis, incest, preg

(I received this PM from a friend I chat with and the following story is the result. I hope everybody, especially my friend, enjoys this tale. "think you could do me a favor and write a story about me and my sis? her name is nicky, she's 3 years younger than me. it would be hot to have it mirror our history, started playing around at 10 and 13, got caught when we were 13 and 16, she asked me to fuck her when she was 14, maybe get her preg at some point after fucking her the first time. i would love to see it on asstr sometime")

Jeff and his sister Nicky were born and raised in a loving family in a small town in Indiana. Jeff is the big brother to Nicky and when she was born he was three and thought it was fun to have a baby sister to play with, little did they know how they would play later in life. They were the normal brother and sister. They played well together one minute and were beating on each other the next. Nicky, being the little sister, would get into Jeff's stuff and he would yell at her or tell their mom to try to get her in trouble. She did the same thing to him at times but since she was the baby, she was able to get away with more things especially because she was a girl.

When Jeff was 13 and Nicky was 10, he looked at her one day and wondered what her girl parts looked like up close. They had seen each other naked many times through the years but had never been allowed to bath together. Their parents thought boys and girls shouldn't bath together because they were a boy and girl and no other reason. On the day Jeff decided he wanted to see her up close, he was watching her for their mom while she went to the store to get some groceries for the week. He knew she would be gone for at least a couple of hours, she usually was. He asked Nicky if she wanted to play doctor while they were alone. She asked him what he was talking about and he told her she would be the patient and he would be the doctor and he would give her an exam. She thought about it for a couple of seconds and told him it sounded like fun.

They went into Jeff's room, and he told her to strip and he would be right back. He handed her a bathrobe and told her to put it on, just like the doctor's did with their gowns. He told her not to put it on backwards like the gowns but the normal way as it would be easier to examine her. He told her he would be right back and walked out of the room. She stripped as he asked and put the robe on. She sat down on his bed and waited for him to return. After a couple of minutes, he came back in the room dressed in a bathrobe as well. He had a dust mask he had found in the garage covering his face and she laughed when she saw him enter. He told her it made it seem more real as he was the doctor and some of them wore masks. He asked her to stand up for the beginning of the exam. He had their toy doctor kit with him and he took out the stethoscope and put it around his neck. He took the thermometer, and put it in her mouth, to take her temperature and then looked in her ears. After he looked at the thermometer, he looked in her mouth and throat. He told her he needed to listen to her heart and she should open her robe but she could leave it on for now. She opened her robe and he saw the front of her nude body for the first time in a long time and saw she was starting to get little boobies, this caused him to get a little excited but he tried not to show it. He listened to her heart on the front and told her to take off the robe completely so he could listen to her lungs and heart from her back. She giggled and told him she would be naked and he told her it was okay as doctors saw their patients naked all the time. When she took off her robe completely, he looked at her small little boobies closer and her bare pussy.

He listened to her lungs and heart and told her she sounded good and now he needed to examine the rest of her. She asked what he was going to look at and he told her every part of her body, she might have cooties and he needed to check for them. This caused her to laugh again and she said only boys had cooties. He told her that maybe some of her boy friends cooties had jumped off them at school and got on her and he wanted to make sure they were dead if she had them. She told him okay. He started at her head in looked in her hair and down her back to her butt. He looked at her butt and knew he would come back to it soon. He continued down her legs and told her to sit on his bed, as he needed to check her toes. She did as he asked and he looked at her feet very close and told her he needed to smell and lick her toes to make sure no cooties were there. When he licked her toes the first time she laughed out loud, and told him it tickled and he told her she would get used to it and relax. She finally was able to relax some even though it still tickled. He told her he was going to work his way up her body and look at the rest of her close too.

He started up her legs and when he got to her pussy, he told her he would have to look close there but would come back to it after he finished her front. She told him she was okay with him looking at her close as she liked what he was doing and it felt good. He thought she was starting to get horny, as he had learned it called at school. He continued up her body and finished at her face. He told her everything looked good but he had some places he needed to look at closer now she asked what places and he told her he needed to check her boobies close as well as her pussy and butt hole. She asked him why those so close and he told her that was where the cooties liked to live the best and they hid there even on her boobies. She told him to go ahead and examine her close then.

He started with her little boobies and touched them for the first time. Again, she giggled as this was all new to her and she had never had anybody touch them before. She told him it felt funny having him touch her like that but not to quit. He told her he needed to suck them into his mouth to clean off any cooties that might try to hide there and sucking them would be the best way. She told him he could suck her boobies if he wanted, she didn't mind. He sucked one boob into his mouth while he was playing with the other. His nipples were starting to get hard from all the attention he was giving her and she even moaned when he sucked it into his mouth. He knew then she was starting to get horny. He switched boobs and found he liked playing with his little sister a lot and hoped they would continue. About that time, they heard their mom come home from the store. Jeff looked at the clock and realized they had been playing for almost two hours. They rushed to get dressed and make it look like they had been doing nothing while she was gone. Jeff kissed Nicky and told her they needed to keep everything secret, as they would get in trouble if their parents found out about them playing doctor. She asked him why and he told her that parents didn't think kids should see each other naked as it was dirty. Nicky told him she didn't think what they had done was dirty in fact she liked it and wanted to do it again. He told her they would when they could be by themselves again.

Jeff and Nicky went to help their mom with the groceries and tried to pretend as though they had been playing a card game while she was gone. She looked at them and tried to figure out why they were being so nice to each other but shrugged it off as one of those days. They helped her carry in the groceries and Nicky helped her put them away while Jeff took off to hang out with his friends. Their mom asked Nicky what they had been doing while she was gone and was told they had just played some card games and Jeff told her he was going to hang out with his friends when she got home. Mom couldn't figure out exactly what she thought was wrong but decided not to pursue it further as she had no proof of anything. After they were finished putting the groceries away Nicky asked if she could go see her friend next door and play until dinner. Mom told her to have fun and be home at five for dinner.

Jeff and Nicky played with their friends and were both home in plenty of time. They didn't want to be late, as they wanted to be left alone again without any problems. They had dinner with their parents and it was Jeff's turn to do the dishes. He did them without any fuss, which was unusual, and his dad told mom he thought maybe Jeff was finally growing up and taking responsibility serious. He asked her how it went leaving them home alone while she was grocery shopping and she told him she thought it went well other than Jeff and Nicky acted a little different when she got home. He asked her how so and she said they acted and seemed older to her for some unknown reason. He told her maybe they were starting to matured and she just noticed it. She told him maybe he was right and kissed him and said that means they were getting old. He laughed and told her they were only as old as they felt and he only wanted to feel 25 that night as he had some plans for her later. She called him a dirty old man and he told her to watch the old stuff and laughed.

Jeff and Nicky were listening to their parents and Jeff told her they needed to be very careful from then on or they would get caught and not be able to play doctor again. She told him she would be sad if they couldn't play doctor as she liked how it made her feel and he had not checked her pussy for cooties yet. He told her they would check her as soon as they could but not to worry, cooties would not hurt her they would just make her feel funny if they got under her skin. She thanked him, kissed him and told him she loved him and she was glad he was her brother and doctor. She knew they were playing but she was serious about her happiness. He told her he loved her too and would never hurt her again. That day their life changed forever.

They continued play doctor and explore each other as often as they could for the next several years and by the time Jeff was 16 they had started masturbating each other to orgasm. They had found some Playboy magazines and not only looked at the pictures but had also read the articles. They were figuring out what sex was all about but didn't know if they were ready to fuck for real yet. One day they were in Nicky's room masturbating each other and they didn't hear their mom come home from work early. They were so wrapped up in each other they didn't know anything until they heard her scream and yell at them to stop and for Jeff to get out of his sister's room. As he was running out the door, their mother yelled at him and told him to go to his room and she would deal with him in a minute. He did as he was told instead of arguing, he knew it would do no good by the sound of her voice. She proceeded to yell at Nicky and ask her what she thought they were doing. Nicky told her it felt good and she didn't think they were doing anything bad. Mom told her it was nasty and good girls didn't let boys play with them especially their brothers. She told Nicky she was restricted to her room until her father got home. She left Nicky's room and went to Jeff's room. She walked in without knocking and found him sitting on his bed still naked. She yelled at him just as she yelled at Nicky. He tried to speak and she told him not to say a word. She told him good brothers and sisters, didn't do what they had been doing to each other, and he was restricted to his room until his father got home as well. She told him she didn't ever want to find out they had been playing with each other again. He knew the only thing he could do was nod his head. She left his room and went to the kitchen to sit and think about what she was going to tell her husband when he got home in a couple of hours.

She thought about and decided what she was going to say and she calmed down at the same time. When her husband got home, she told him what she had come home and found and he went to talk to each child alone. He tried to stay as calm as possible and explain to them that what they had done was wrong. Jeff tried to tell him they were not hurting each other but dad would have nothing to do with it and told him never to do it again or he would be looking for a new home. Jeff knew he needed to keep his mouth shut and he did. Dad went to talk to Nicky and explained to her the same thing he had just told Jeff, except he didn't tell her she would be looking for a new home but told her Jeff would be. She told him they would stop, but in her mind she was actually thinking to herself she couldn't wait for her and Jeff to get together again. They would just be more careful from then on. Dad told her it was time for her to go help her mother get dinner ready and walked out of her room.

The dinner conversation was strained, to say the least. When they finished eating, mom told Nicky she was going to do the dishes and not to argue. Mom and dad went into the living room and Jeff returned to his room to do his homework. Nicky did the dishes and could only think about how good Jeff made her feel when they were together and she didn't want to stop. Jeff was in his room thinking the same thing and was trying to figure out ways for them to be alone now that they had been caught. He knew they could not wait very long before they would try to get together.

For the next several months, they were only able to get together a few times and it was for short periods only. They did more passing notes back and forth to each other by leaving them in the bathroom drawer. Shortly after Nicky's 14th birthday, they were able to be alone for about 15 minutes. They kissed each other as lovers, which they had all but become even though they had not ever fucked. She told Jeff she loved him and she wanted him to be her first, if not only, lover. He asked her if she knew what she was asking and was she sure. She told him that ever since she was 10 years old and they had played doctor that first time she knew he would be the one to fuck her first. He told her they would figure it out as soon as they could be alone for more than a few minutes. The opportunity came the next weekend.

Their parents told them they were proud of them for respecting what they had been told, and had not been doing anything nasty as they were several months back. They looked at each other and then asked their parents when they would be allowed to be alone together again. Their dad told them he thought it would be okay for them to be alone that evening as they wanted to go see a movie. Jeff and Nicky told them they would be okay alone and for them to go have fun and they would see them about midnight. Dad told him they were going to the movie in the next town and had decided to get a motel room and spend the night. Jeff and Nicky held their excitement in until their parents left and then she jumped into his arms and told him they were going to get to fuck that night. He told her to relax, as they had to make sure their parents were gone long enough to get to the next town before he wanted to start. He told her he didn't want to get caught again. She pouted but agreed with him and told him she was going to take a shower to smell good for him and told him as soon as she was done he needed to do the same thing and he told her he didn't need to smell good for himself. She smacked him and told him he needed to smell good for her and walked out of the room.

After Nicky finished her shower, Jeff jumped in and she went to her room. She put on the sexiest nightgown she owned and lit some candles trying to make it romantic. When Jeff finished his shower, he came into her room and saw the most beautiful site he had ever seen. Nicky was reclined on her bed dressed in her nightgown with the sexiest look on her face. She looked at him as he entered and licked her lips and smiled. She then told him to come over to the bed and to please make love to her and turn her into a woman. He sat on the edge of the bed and told her he could not make her into a woman as she had done it all on her own. He told her how beautiful she was and how he would make love to her with pleasure. He bent down and kissed her hard and deep. They played tonsil hockey for several minutes while he was feeling her boobs through her nightgown. She finally broke apart and ripped her nightgown off and told him the romance was over, she needed to be fucked right then and there, she was done waiting. He looked at her and told her if that was what she wanted then that was what she was going to get. He reached down and touched her pussy and found a swamp of moisture and she told him she needed no foreplay as she was horny enough for two or three woman. She grabbed his cock and told him it was time. He got on top of her and she helped line him up, as it was his first time having sex also. They were both virgins about to give their virginity to the other. When she felt his cock head just start to enter, she wrapped her legs around his back and told him to push hard and not stop, even if she screamed as she knew it was going to hurt when he broke through her cherry. He did as she asked and when he broke through she only let out a small short scream and then it was more of a moan of pleasure.

They were only able to fuck for about a minute before Jeff felt to urge to cum and he told her he should pull out, as he didn't want to cum inside of her. She would have nothing to do with him pulling out and kept her legs wrapped around his back. He was unable to hold off any longer and came as hard if not harder than he had cum before. Nicky came with him and finally let her legs fall to her bed. He lifted himself up enough to look her in the eyes, and told her how much he loved her, and thanked her for the wonderful experience. She told him the same thing and asked how soon he would be ready to do it again. He told her he thought he could be ready again in about five minutes as he still felt horny too. They ended up fucking five times before they were so exhausted they fell asleep with his cock still in her pussy. Jeff woke up, and looked at the clock, and saw that it was close to 10:00am and he woke Nicky up and told her what time it was and he knew their parents would be home within the hour. They jumped out of bed and changed her sheets to get rid of the small blood stain they had left. While she was putting clean sheets on her bed, Jeff put her dirty ones in the washer. They were dressed and the bed made just in time as their parents arrived home after only about 45 minutes.

Jeff and Nicky greeted their parents as though nothing had happened and asked then how the movie was and what did they see. They were told the movie was good and they saw the old Tron movie, in reality they had went to the motel and just fucked all night. They had been wanting to have a fuck get away for a while but had waited because of catching Jeff and Nicky playing around with each other. What they didn't know was that Jeff and Nicky had had a similar night and had fucked each other for the first time, several times. They all sat around for a short time and finally Jeff said he was going to hang out with some friends at the park and shoot hoops. Nicky asked if she could call a couple of her friends and be cheerleaders, Jeff told her to go for it. She did and they left to meet up at the park basketball court. They wanted to hold hands and be boy friend and girl friend but knew they couldn't out in public, especially in front of their parents as they thought they had stopped fooling around with each other.

They met their friends and the guys shot hoops as the girls cheered them on. One of Jeff's friends told him he thought Nicky was cute, and did he think she would go out with him. Jeff told him to back off as she was only 14 and he was 17. He apologized to Jeff and told him he would not ask again. It was at that time, Jeff knew he was in love with his sister and not just in lust for her pussy. He looked over at her and she smiled and sent him a kiss in the air. Her girl friends looked at her and then at Jeff and giggled as 14 year old girls do. They told her they were going to the bathroom and asked if she wanted to go with them. She did and they went to all go pee. When they got into the bathroom and locked the door, they cornered her and asked her what the air kiss was all about. She told them nothing but they told her she was lying and finally she confessed to fucking Jeff the night before and how she was in love with her brother. They told her it was illegal but they would not say anything to anybody and asked her if she would share him. She told them no to find their own guys. They called her stingy but accepted what she said.

After the game and it was time to head home, Jeff and Nicky decided to say fuck the world and held hands walking home. All of their friends saw them and knew what was going on. They told Jeff and Nicky they would not say anything and if they needed a place to be alone they all offered their house when their parents were gone. One of Jeff's friends and one of Nicky's friends asked if they could watch them. Nicky told them only if they were fucking beside them could they watch. The girl agreed as she liked the guy anyway. The guy told Jeff his parents were going to be gone mid-week over night and they could come over after school. Nicky said it sounded like a plan to her and they would see them then. Everybody went their separate way and the two couples walked hand in hand with their partner. About a block from home Jeff told Nicky they better stop holding hands as he didn't want to listen to their parents yell at them again.

Mid-week could not come soon enough and when it finally arrived the two couples met after school and walked to the guy's house. He told them he had set up the family room with camping pads to fuck on, as he did want to do it beside each other. The girls both told him he just wanted to see more pussy and tits. He could not deny it and they all sat around having a soda. The girl finally stood up and told the others she was ready to fuck and she wanted to do it right then and started taking off her clothes. It didn't take much for Nicky to join her and soon the girls were standing there naked and the guys could only stare. Nicky had grown a nice set of small "B" cup boobs by this time and her friend had a similar pair on her chest. She pushed hers out to the boy she was with and asked him if he liked her tits. He almost couldn't talk but was able to tell her they were beautiful, and pulled her to him, and suck one into his mouth. Jeff did the same thing to Nicky and soon was stripping his clothes off. It didn't take five minutes after the girls were nude and the boys were as well. The two couples made out beside each other for several more minutes and Nicky was the first to say she had better have Jeff's cock in her soon or she was going to join the other couple and he could fuck her instead. Jeff was not to be abandoned so he asked her if she wanted to be on top or bottom. She told him she still preferred bottom. He crawled on top of her, she grabbed his cock and lined it up with her opening and he entered her in on smooth motion. Their friends could only watch with fascination as the brother and sister started fucking. It didn't take long and the girl told the guy to fuck her the same way Jeff was fucking Nicky but she didn't want it slow and easy, she wanted it hard and fast. He told her if that was the way she wanted it, then that was how she was going to get it. He crawled on top of her and she grabbed his cock to line him up. As soon as he knew he was lined up her told her told hold on and rammed into her hard, almost to the point of it being rape, she didn't care as that was how she wanted it this time, she would do slow and easy another time. The two couples fucked beside each other and the girls held hands. After both guys had came in his girls pussy, and fell to their backs, the girls kissed each other as lovers instead of friends. The guys tried to get them to do more but were told no a kiss was all the girls were going to do. Neither couple had used a condom, and it ended up both girl were impregnated that afternoon.

About a week after the two couple had fucked, Nicky and her girl friend were in the restroom at school puking their guts out. They both thought, maybe, they had caught the flu, or something. They went to the school office and asked to be allowed to go home as they were both ill. They were told their parents would need to come and sign them out but otherwise they were okay to leave for the day. Their mothers were called, and they each picked up their daughter and took her home. For several days, each girl was sick in the morning and finally the mothers became concerned and started to think it was not the flu as they were only sick in the morning. Nicky's mom went to the pharmacy and purchased a home pregnancy test kit and told Nicky to pee on it when she handed it to her. Nicky told her she didn't think she was pregnant but her mother told her to do it anyway. The test came back positive, just as had been suspected. Nicky's mom called the other mom and she confirmed the same thing with the other girl. Mom sat Nicky down and forced her to tell her who the father was. Nicky was finally able to tell her it was her brother Jeff, but she loved him and wanted to have his baby, now that she knew she was pregnant. Her mother told her how wrong it was and how they had trusted her and Jeff to have stopped fooling around months earlier. In tears Nicky told her how they couldn't stop and about the day with the other couple. Mom told her they would be talking as a family after dinner but for now, she thought Nicky should go to her room as she wasn't sure she could be with her right then.

When Jeff came home from school, his mother greeted him and told him to go to his sister's room. She followed him to Nicky's room and he knocked on the door. Nicky told him to come in and he found her sitting on her bed holding a stuffed animal. Their mother followed him in and told Nicky she needed to tell Jeff and she was not going to leave the room until she did. Jeff asked her what mom was talking about and she started crying once again. He went to her, held her, and told her what ever it was it couldn't be that bad. She was finally able, between sobs, to tell him he was going to be a daddy. He asked her what and looked at their mom. She told him she was pregnant and he was going to be a daddy. Their mother told him the same as she had told Nicky earlier, they would be talking as a family after dinner that evening and now that he knew, he was to go to his room. He asked to stay with Nicky and after much begging from both of them, he was allowed to stay.

Jeff and Nicky held each other and Jeff told her how much he loved her and would take care of her and their baby for the rest of their lives. She told him how much she loved him but was scared about what their father was going to do and say that night. Jeff told her what ever he said they would still be together. He asked her if he could make love to her and she nodded her head yes. They made love for what seemed like hours, but in reality was only about an hour. Their mother heard them and wanted to go in and put a stop to it but decided the damage had already been done, so she tried to block out the sound. What was actually happening was she was getting turned on herself, knowing her babies were fucking each other and they had made a grandchild for her together.

When their dad came home, mom decided Jeff and Nicky needed to tell their father, it was not up to her. They had a nice meal and were having a good conversation after they finished when mom looked at the two of them and asked if they didn't have something they would like to tell their father. Jeff looked at Nicky and then his mother and cleared his throat. He looked at his dad and told him he was going to be a grandfather. Dad asked who the mother was and Jeff took Nicky's hand and told him it was Nicky. Dad started to get pissed off but mom calmed him down and told him she was no more pleased but they needed to listen to Jeff and Nicky. Jeff went on to tell him they knew from the time he was 13 and Nicky was 10 that they were going to be together forever. He knew he loved Nicky and that they had not planned for her to get pregnant, but now that it had happened he was very happy and excited to be a father and he would take care of Nicky and the baby for as long as he lived. Nicky spoke up and told their parents the same thing and she wanted to live with him as his wife.

Dad looked at mom and then spoke to Jeff and Nicky. He told them that what they had been doing was illegal and sinful. They interrupted and told him they knew that but couldn't help it. He told them to let him finish, and went on to tell them he and their mother was going to have to discuss what was going to happen from that point on. He told them he knew they would probably not stop loving each other regardless of what he said, but he asked them to give them some time to talk.

Nicky spoke up and told them they would but asked if they could start sleeping together and turn Jeff's room into the nursery? Mom told them they still needed to decide what was going to happen, so for now they had to go their own rooms and let them talk. Jeff looked at Nicky and told them he could live with their decision but he hoped they would let them be together.

Dad and mom sat at the table and mom started crying saying she thought they had raised them better. Dad told her they did a fine job with the kids, what they were doing had nothing to do with how they had been raised. She asked him what he thought they should do now since Nicky was going to have a baby. He told her even though he did not like the idea he thought they should allow them to be a couple, with rules of course. She asked him what rules and he told her they still needed to continue going to school, help out around the house and when the baby came it was Jeff and Nicky's responsibility and not theirs. She told him she agreed and thought they should get some parenting classes so they at least had a general idea of what they might encounter. He agreed and called the kids back into the dining room. Jeff and Nicky came in and were told to sit down.

Dad looked at his children, with tears in his eyes, and told them there were some rules they were going to follow if they wanted to continue living in the house, as they know it. Jeff told his dad they would do whatever they told them. Dad started out telling them that they were going to be enrolled in parenting classes and they would attend every one without question. Nicky said she liked that idea. Mom told them they would continue going to school and help around the house. Dad went on to say they had decided they could start living together in Nicky's room and Jeff's room would be converted to a nursery and when the baby came, it was their responsibility and they would be grandparents only. Nicky looked at Jeff and told him she loved him and asked him to be her husband forever. Jeff kissed his sister, in front of mom and dad for the first time, as his wife and told her he would care for her always and forever. Nicky went to her mom and dad and thanked them and told them her and Jeff would make them proud grandparents with them way they were going to raise their baby.

Nicky and mom went into Jeff's room and started talking about how they were going to set it up as the nursery while Jeff stayed with dad. Dad looked at Jeff and finally spoke to him. He told him that he was actually very disappointed in him and thought he knew better than to fuck any girl without a condom. He said he thought they had stopped messing around after the last time they caught them together. Jeff apologized to him and said they had tried to stop but it had only lasted a short time before they had to get together as they loved each other so much. He went on to tell his dad how he had tried to think about other girls and even tried to get up the nerve to ask one out but couldn't hurt Nicky. He told dad how the first time he had sex with Nicky he tried to pull out but she wouldn't let him and since she didn't get pregnant that time they thought it was safe to do it again. He was not sorry he got her pregnant but hoped she would be okay since she was so young. Dad told him they should have thought about that before they fucked without a condom but the damage was done so to speak.

Nicky and her mother stood in Jeff's room talking about how they were going to decorate but mom suggested they just get Jeff's things moved to Nicky's room and then do a major cleaning. Nicky told her she wanted to find out what sex the baby was so she could decorate accordingly. Mom yelled for Jeff to come to his room and help move his stuff.

(Fast forward five months)

Nicky was starting to get large and was following all of her doctor's orders to the letter. They found out they were going to have a little girl and this excited Jeff. Nicky asked him why he so excited, didn't he want a son. He told her he had wanted a daughter first for reasons he really didn't know but he did. She told him it was probably because he was such a pervert and wanted to fuck his daughter just like he fucked his sister. He told her he didn't think that was the reason, but if she said he could, then it might be fun. She smacked him and told him she was the only woman he was going to fuck and if he tried to fuck their baby girl, she would cut his cock off and feed it to him. He told her he would be good as he liked his cock right where it was on his body. Nicky continued to grow larger until finally the day came that little Emily was to be born.

Jeff took his wife to the hospital to deliver their baby and their parents met them there. When they arrived at had her settled into the delivery room, Nicky looked at Jeff and told him how much she loved him and they were going to be a mommy and daddy soon. The nurses made comment to each other about how young they were and how much they looked alike but made sure the family didn't hear, as it was really none of their business. Nicky had a fairly easy delivery but when she was in full labor she told Jeff how much she hated him for causing her the pain she was experiencing. Jeff knew she didn't mean it as he knew other women told their husbands the same thing when they were having babies. Emily was finally born after about six hours. She was a healthy beautiful baby girl and had a good set of lungs on her. Dad told them she sounded just like Nicky when she was born, mom said Emily weighed about the same as Jeff. The nurses looked at each other and grinned, they knew then that Jeff and Nicky were brother and sister. They saw the love and knew they couldn't turn them in to the authorities for incest and just told the couple congratulations.

Jeff and Nicky took Emily home and set about becoming a family, even though they were still living with their parents. The young couple were able to continue their schooling and actually did very well as far as their grades, Nicky maintained a 3.0 GPA and Jeff a 3.10, their parents were proud of them for their achievements and sticking with it even though they had Emily to take care of as well. Finally, the day came for Nicky to graduate from High School.

Jeff had been out of school and had a job at the local sporting goods store as a cashier/sales person. He enjoyed his job and his boss told him he was in line for the next manager position. They decided to celebrate Nicky's graduation by going out to a nice fancy dinner. Mom and dad offered to watch Emily and told them if they would like to rent a motel room for the night they would watch her over night. Jeff thanked them and made the motel reservations. When they arrived at the motel the desk clerk started to tell them they could not have a room as they were too young, thinking they were just a 21 year old man taking a teen out for some fast fucking. Nicky told him, they were husband and wife and showed him her drivers license to show they had the same last name and address. She didn't tell him they were actually brother and sister as it was none of his business. They were given the key and went to the room. They hardly made it through the door and Nicky attacked Jeff and told him she was now an adult too as she was no longer in High School. She told him to fuck her and fuck her hard as they had been trying to be so quiet when they fucked at home because they didn't want to embarrass their parents but she didn't care who heard them here. Jeff told her to hang on then as she was going to get the fucking of her life.

They ripped their clothes off as fast as they could and fell onto the top of the bed. Nicky told him she wanted him to eat her pussy for her and she would suck his cock at the same time. They got into the 69 position and brought each other off within about two minutes or less. She sucked Jeff hard quickly and told him to fuck her now. Jeff lined his cock up with her dripping pussy and shoved it in without slowing down. He hit bottom and almost shoved it through her cervix. He fucked her hard and he was worried he was going to hurt her but she kept telling him harder. Because he had just came it took him about ten minutes to cum again. This time he rammed his cock in hard and he thought he broke into her womb. He came and came until he was completely drained, and fell to his side exhausted. He looked over at Nicky and saw the biggest smile she had ever had on her face. She looked at him and told him she thought they had just made another baby. He asked her how could she tell, and she told him she just felt it. He told her he loved her and if it was true he was excited to have another baby as Emily was 4-years-old and it was time for her to have a little brother or sister. Nicky did get pregnant that night with number two. Nine months later Brenda was born.

(This my friends is the end of this tale. I already have plans to continue this story line but Brenda will be 10 when we take it up again. Jeff and Nicky as well as their parents will be in the next installment too. Stay tuned as I have a couple of other things I am working on. As always, incest and pedo are illegal, and should only be fantasy and not reality. Should you find yourself leaning toward pedo in real life, go get some help with a counselor.
