Personal Biography/Resume

Who am I?

I am a writer who has been writing on and off for the last ten years but has only been present on the internet for just over a year. I started with two novels, 'Denise' and Diane' that are sort of loosely linked by some of the same characters. These characters occasionally crop up in other stories, or are just hinted at, as well.

And so it goes... Once one gets the writing bug there is no letting go! In the last year or more I have experimented with short stories and novels. My overriding motto is:

Women are mentally stronger than men if they exert themselves!

Sometimes their victims are other women. Sometimes they are men. Often they are both. Occasionally they simply command obedience, for example in 'The Other Women' and 'Game Set & Match'. Often they demand and force their ascendancy in short stories like 'Denise', 'Dark Widow' and 'Queen Of Spades'. Other times they destroy their victims and reduce them to less than human as in '419', 'From Behind A Mask Of Ennui' and 'Diane'.

In general I am writing short stories for my own amusement, and yours. I like to play with words, and my audience, and produce different styles and formats of writing. That means that the reader will find no two stories the same, either plot or style wise.

In my writings you will find a nubile female Chinese torturer, a vampire who feeds off sex, a Byzantine Queen, a Russian revolutionary, a Nigerian slave taker, a slave training business, a grasping female lawyer, a cat burglar, a professional dominatrix, a Mycenaean priestess, a teacher in love, a nightmare of reality, a gaggle of dominant northern sluts, a hotel maid who goes from service to slavery, a man who has a vanity operation, a Brazilian kidnapper, a grasping female lawyer who falls in love. That is the start because I have uncovered plenty of other women who need others to satisfy their perverted needs.

Some of the stories are 'slow burners', others dig fast and deep into sexual pain and servitude from the first page. My goal is that all are exiting to read for the sexual domination, but at the same time plotted to make the read itself a moment of gratification.

I have a policy that short stories are generally released to Femdomcave.com first and will reside for months in the subscription section before later getting released generally. Novels, that take a great deal more effort to write, are serialised on Femdomcave.com and then released complete as E-Books.

By all means search for my stories on the Internet, but the PDF files that comprise the versions on FemdomCave.com are my preferred versions over the text files that you may find on other sites. All the 'cover' pictures are my own work and reflect the contents without allowing the graphic written content to be transferred to the front page.

Below, in the list of 'published works', I have tried to give you, the reader an idea of what lies ahead when you download my work. Most of the stories are free to download so do not hesitate to test them and see if you like a little purple prose.

The short stories listed separately above are all available in various versions (text) on the Internet. On FemdomCave.com you should find them in the PDF format that I prefer. Easy on the eye, frontispiece and cover. If you want a hardback copy then look here :

<http://www.lulu.com/spotlight/IreneClearmont1>

This hardback volume has nothing that is not in the PDF stories! However, I like to have a hardback copy of my own work. So I collected and edited the 'free' stories and made them available to buy in this format for anyone to buy.

Other Information

Works at present nearing completion:

A novel, "The Second Circle Of Hell" that is drifting towards completion. This returns to the dark world of 'Diane', 'Denise' & 'Dark Widow'. There was always a conflict between the three novels, in that there is overlap of character and story but some lack of coherence. I have decided that 'Dark Widow' is the wished-for characterisation of the world of Miss Irene Clearmont's hell-on-earth, so this piece follows on from there, a few years later. At the moment 35-38,000 words are written out of a probable 50-60,000.

I always have a number of short stories underway. So far the titles of those, the planning notes, so to say have titles like 'Hitchhiker', 'Converse', 'Happy New Year', 'Yet to Come', 'The Dating Game', 'Web Switch', 'Three Virtues', 'The Man Who Wasn't There', 'Getting Uneven' and 'Cougar'. Of these some are just in need of an editorial eye, one is heading towards becoming a novel! Some are little more than a title, an idea, a list and just a twinkle in their mother's eye. I may well decide that some are strong enough to become part of another collection like 'Eve's Apples'. Some will appear in the next few months as I pace the release of new material.
