Brad's First Cum

I have read many stories of young boys fucking older women, and of older men shagging young girls, so I thought I would write down my first sexual experience, which happened the day before my thirteenth birthday.

I was up in the woods playing hide-and-seek with my sixteen-year-old brother. Being unable to find him after searching for an hour, I thought I would head for the stream and have a swim. Many years later my brother told me that the reason I could not find him was because he met up with some of his mates and a couple of girls, and had gone deep into the woods to fuck them.

As I approached the stream, I stumbled across two girls that I knew from school, though they were two years older than I was. As I sat on the grass near them to ask if they had seen my brother, I noticed that Jane did not have any knickers on. She must have seen me looking, because she opened her legs further to give me a better view of her young 'down' covered snatch. Jane nodded to her friend, Ann, and as I looked in Ann's direction I discovered her to be in the same position, exposing her fanny to my view.

Not knowing what to do I looked back at Jane. "I'm still wet from your brother", she said, and started to rub her pussy. "He's just fucked us both", Ann replied, as Jane added "And his mates, I've been screwed three times." So there I was, twelve years old, unsure what to do as these two teenage girls sat in front of me, playing with their fannies.

"Want a better look", Ann said as she lay back and pulled her skirt up with one hand and opened the lips of her slit with the other exposing her clit. I was so transfixed that I hardly noticed Jane pressing on my groin as she moved towards me. Well! The manipulation of Jane's hand, the vision of Ann's fifteen year old slit, and the thoughts of my brother and his mates ramming their stiff teen weapons in these girls cunts would cause any boy's cock to rise. I gradually moved my position to allow Jane to pull down my shorts and pants. "Lovely" she murmured as she played with my erect boyhood, and leaned forwards to take it in her mouth. I lay back on the grass, enjoying the sensation of thoughts warm tender lips sucking down on my prick, and shuddered as Ann approached and licked my smooth sack and engulfed my balls in her mouth.

"Now for the business", I heard Jane say as she spread her legs. Ann pushed me forward and guided my tender smooth virgin tool into Jane's warm moist channel. As I slipped into her I could feel the recent cum juices of my brother and his mates. With the help of Ann's hands on my waist, I started to pump Jane, which caused her to sigh with delight. I was just getting into rhythm, when Ann pulled me off Jane, and as I slipped out of her Ann straddled me and lowered her love chute over my stiff rod. "I've never had a young'n before" Ann said, as she rode up and down on my four-inch dick.

After several minutes of Ann's Oo's and Ah's, she stopped moving her hips leaving my cock buried deep in her cunt. "Can you throw it out" she asked me, as Jane played with my balls. Although I was used to my cock getting hard when I played with it, I always stopped rubbing before I came. I had often caught my brother tossing himself off, in the bedroom that we shared. I would walk into the room to find him with his trousers around his ankles rubbing his cock. He never stopped, and sometimes if I was near him, he would put his hand up the leg of my shorts and play with my dick and balls. Pushing back my foreskin to revel the gland within would cause my cock to erect, and then with a few grunts, my brother would shoot his load, wipe himself off and continue with what ever he was doing previously. As I replied that I didn't, Ann got of me, and both girls began to work on my now rampant penis. Jane rubbed my cock while Ann played with my balls. They carried on long after I would have stopped. Then as my prick seemed to get bigger and harder, I had my first ever cum and shot my spunk into the air. "Phew!" I heard the girls say, as I looked to see Jane licking my cream off her fingers and Ann smearing it around her swollen clit. Then rearranging their clothes they left me.

I must have fallen asleep, but when I woke up, I pushed my still throbbing cock into my shorts, and headed for home. As I walked I thought of the fucking I had given Jane and Ann and my prick began to rise. Walking into he bushes I dropped my shorts. My prick gleaned with the juices from the girls, which was mixed with the spunk deposits recently spilt in them. Holding my cock with one hand and playing with my balls with the other, I began to jerk myself off, as I thought of my brother and his mates penetrating the girls' cunts with their steaming cocks. I rubbed and rubbed, then as I bucked at the knees, Ahhhhhh! The boy juice in my balls shot from the end of my prick onto the grass.

Feeling that now I had grown up I pulled up my shorts and headed for home, waiting for the next time that I would masturbate, and the next time my cock would slide into a warm cunt.
